

Professional activity“Integration of immigrant youth and adults“

Dates	Topics	Client
Since 1992	Seminars on biographical work of young immigrants	Kassel schools: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Waldau Open School (OSW) • J.-von-Eichendorff, Elisabeth-Knippling Radko-Stöckl School, Melsungen
1992 – 2002	Courses and seminars on German as a second language for adults, mature immigrants. Orientation in daily life, training in using everyday language, biographical work, “School in Germany” project	DIALOG Institute Kassel BENGI (Bettenhausen Women’s Group International)
Since 1993	Courses for foreign teachers of German	DIALOG Institute Kassel
1995 – 2001	Language promotion and integration activities with immigrant school pupils	Waldau Open School (OSW), Kassel
Documented in	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “That was the first time I’ve said so much about myself!” – a weekend with Muslim girls • “A Weekend in the Women’s Forum” (participants’ report) • “Second Weekend Seminar for foreign-born Girls” (participants’ report) • “Before We Mistook One Another – practice-oriented work with young emigrés” (with Rosemarie Krajczyk) • “Cold Coffee?” Thoughts on biographical work with immigrant school girls 	In: “Intercultural” – Cultures in Europe Volume 1-3/93, pp. 295 ff. In: “School Life”, Publication of the OSW, no. 18, 7/1993, pp. 14 f. “Malwida” –No. 1, 7/1994, pp. 6-8 In: Journal of Immigration and Social Work, Volume 2/97, pp. 42ff In: Astrid Kaiser(Pub.): “Girls’ Lessons, Boys’ Lessons” Hohengehren, Spring 2002